Ladies, the Time To Do Christmas Shopping Is NOW!

MEXICO CITY MAY BE CUT OFF; WILSON TO BACK UP DEMANDS

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—Owing to the fact that the town of Orizaba is menaced by rebels with a consequent threatening of cutting off communications with the coast, foreigners are flocking to Vera Cruz in large numbers to avoid being bottled up at the capital. It is reported that 600 men of the garrison at Victoria, the capital of Tamaulipas are still holding the rebel attackers in check.

The removal of Querido Moheno, minister of foreign affairs, and the appointment of Pedro Lascurain, who filled the place under Madero, is being discussed.

The completion of the organization of congress put a finishing touch on the defiance of Huerta to the demands of the United States.

Surprise was elicited here by the publication of statements that President Wilson does not intend to take active measures to support his recent demands. Talk of Huerta resigning is still heard but every act of the provisional president tends to dissipate the idea that he entertains any such intention.

A singular fact is the absence of anti-American feeling despite the efforts of the newspapers to stir up sentiment as they did during the Madero revolution when mobs paraded the streets.

Tampico Has Fallen
GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 19.—Tampico has fallen into the hands of the Constitutionalists, according to wireless dispatches.

Villa To Obey Carranza
NOGALES, Ariz., Nov. 19.—General Carranza had a long conversation on the telephone with General Pancho Villa at Juarez today. He said that Villa expressed his intention to act in accordance with any orders from Carranza and that other insurgent chiefs in the state of Chihuahua are equally in sympathy with the Constitutionalist's commander.

PREPARATION TO MOBILIZE TROOPS AT PRESCOTT ARE BEING MADE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 19.—That the United States will be ready for any possible conflict with Mexico is shown by the preparations being made daily in Arizona and other border states by the war department.

Richard D. LaGrade, first lieutenant U. S. A., who occupies an office with Adj. Gen. C. W. Harris at the capitol, received a telegram today from Department Commander Gen. Tasker Bliss at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, ordering him to proceed to Prescott to draw plans on the ground for the First Arizona Infantry, near Fort Whipple.

The arrangement is tentative. The war department takes the step in order to have a fixed place to establish barracks for the troops in case they are ordered out. They will be ready for any sudden emergency.

While the Arizona mobilization quarters have not been definitely fixed, the telegram from Gen. Bliss shows that Prescott is favored, but that Tucson and Fort Huachuca are being considered.

In case war is declared the troops will hurry to Fort Whipple, pitch their tents and have barracks, according to Lieutenant LaGrade's plans, erected within three weeks. A force of carpenters can be ordered immediately and telegrams sent to Flagstaff for lumber in case of an emergency.

Lieut. LaGrade's plans will call for wooden buildings for the troops. Several old shacks along the railroad will be torn down to make room for the barracks which will be constructed where the old garrison used to be.

The Fort Whipple site will be selected as the Arizona mobilization point if the troops are called out within the next month. If any later than that time, the rifle range at Tucson may be chosen, as the government will send engineers to investigate the Tucson site within a month.

A short time ago the war department investigated Prescott as a mobilization point. Later the rifle range at Tucson was suggested on account of the southern city being closest to the border it with good railroad facilities.

DO YOUR SHOPPING NOW

Don't go about your Christmas shopping late this year. Keep in mind your own interests and the interests of others and start today to make your selections. You will have a better Christmas this year for it.

The Western Union special train, which visited Yuma last week, is now in Tucson.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO 'GET ACQUAINTED'

The Epworth League will entertain with a "Get Acquainted" social on Friday evening, November 21, at 7:00 o'clock, at the Methodist church. We expect our new pastor to be with us at that time. Come and help us to welcome him. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

RETURN FROM AGUA CALIENTE

C. E. Potter, manager of the Yuma Ice Company, has returned from Agua Caliente, where with his wife he spent twelve days at the life-giving springs.

SECURES FINAL PROOF

L. H. Osborn has made final proof on his Bard unit and today received his papers from the land office.

The Ladies' Home Journal for December is just what you need to assist you in your selection of Christmas presents. It is full of helpful ideas. Get a copy tomorrow at Shorey's.

SUCCESSFUL FARMER GOES TO CONTRACTING

S. M. Filipovich, who on Monday sold a ten-acre tract at $400 per acre, is retiring from ranching and will go back to building and contracting.

His ad offering a splendid lot of farm animals and implements for sale at auction appears on page four of this issue.

Mr. Filipovich has been a successful farmer, but longs for his old trade.

THE CHRISTMAS BELLS WILL SOON RING OUT

AND THE POPULAR SLOGAN OF "DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY"

IS SUGGESTED TO ALL YUMA SHOPPERS

BETTER SELECTIONS CAN BE MADE NOW—WHOLE STOCKS ARE FRESH AT PRESENT

IT ALSO MAKES IT EASIER ON THE HARD-WORKED CLERKS, AND THEY ARE DESERVING OF SOME CONSIDERATION

No matter how many times it has been repeated, the injunction to "do your shopping early" has a direct bearing upon every individual in Yuma who expects to use the stores in preparation for Christmas. This is not merely a matter of merchants' interests, but it is to the advantage of the buyers. Do your Christmas shopping early because you can get better service now than later. Do it because you can get a better choice of goods. Do it because it is a contribution to the welfare of the clerks in the stores to equalize the pressure as much as possible. Do it because you can more accurately determine your scale of Christmas investments now than during the last rushing days before the holidays.

Early shopping ought to be a habit with the majority of people. The stores furnish inspiration to the Christmas gift seeker weeks before December 25, spreading their attractive arrays of goods forth for selection. And there is small chance that by buying now one will miss specialties that may be put on the market later. The merchants make their own preparations for the Christmas trade many months in advance, and are as well prepared for the business in October as in December. It is only fair to them to reciprocate. They have invested immense sums of money in their stocks, and, naturally, they prefer to have them moved as soon as possible. This is a business matter. It is the business of the buyer as well as the seller. Yuma needs no special admonition on this score, for it has heretofore responded promptly to the suggestion of early shopping, and it is even now attending daily to the Christmas buying in wise anticipation of the day of gift-making.

BIG SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT ST. JOE

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 18.—The most important Sunday school convention ever held in this state began here today with the opening of the 48th session of the Missouri Sunday School Association in the Auditorium. More than 3,000 delegates are attending, the speakers to include men of national prominence, among them being W. C. Pearce of Chicago, associate general secretary of the International Sunday School Union. Attractions that take young people from the church will be discussed at great length.

GLADSOME TIDINGS

The Examiner is gratified to learn that there is at least one postoffice that is free from mistakes. The Somerton office claims that distinction.

GOVERNOR G. W. P. HUNT ISSUES ANNUAL THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION FOR ARIZONA

Since the citizens of Arizona last gave thanks in unison to the Creator for a bountiful harvest and other blessings mercifully bestowed, the cycle of a year has neared completion, bringing to every state and nation its burden of disaster, or rightful gift of plenty; to every human heart its share of gladness or of sorrow, its allotted portion of ecstasy or pain. Withstanding every menace of a civil and external nature, Arizona, with a relatively ideal government in which both men and women, with equal enfranchisement and responsibility, cooperate for the general good, has passed triumphant each separate crisis, while preserving peace and its attendant prosperity; and garnering from every source of plenty the wealth that nature had to give, has used these natural treasures with judicious liberality; has honored toil with its just return, and has rewarded thrift with the satisfaction of temporal needs, industry with its increment, and the pursuit of happiness with the object of its quest.

It is fitting, therefore, that Arizona's citizens should feel grateful to the "Giver of all good and perfect things" for the prosperity and peace that has been accorded the Commonwealth in which they live and labor. Nor should the harvest season be regarded only as a period when thanks are rendered for blessings previously conferred, but rather be, also, a time for entering upon a new resolve to so manifest our gratitude for material advantages divinely bestowed as to exemplify the principle of thrift so worthily extolled as a human virtue in the familiar adage, "Saving goes before security, happiness and good citizenship."

Now, therefore, in recognition of the many benefits conferred by an all-wise Providence, in conformity with long established custom and pursuant to the proclamation of the president of the United States, I, GEORGE W. P. HUNT, governor of Arizona, do hereby designate and I most earnestly recommend that, on the day thus set apart, all who acknowledge allegiance to our state shall do that which lies within their power to ameliorate the hard conditions of those who are heavily burdened, to invoke on the suffering and the poor the wise beneficence of a kindly Deity; to extend charity and helpful sympathy to those of our fellowmen upon whom bitter circumstances have laid a heavy hand; to commemorate at altar and at fireside with appropriate ceremonies and festivities that spirit of our forefathers that found sincere expression in the celebration of the first Thanksgiving on New England's rugged shore in 1621, to the end that all shall be deeply mindful of the benevolence and omnipresent love of our Supreme Being.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER TWENTY-SEVENTH, AS THANKS GIVING DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Arizona to be affixed.

Done at the City of Phoenix, the Capital, this 15th day of November, 1913.

GEORGE W. P. HUNT,
Governor of Arizona.
(Seal)
By the Governor:
SIDNEY P. OSBURN,
Secretary of State.

LIFTING EMBARGO ON ARMS NOT NECESSARY

NOGALES, Nov. 19.—A final conference in the negotiations between the United States and the Constitutionalists is being held today between W. B. Hale and General Carranza. When the conference between Mr. Hale and Francisco Escudero ended last night there was much uncertainty and discouragement as to the outcome. Both sides appeared to be deadlocked. Escudero issued a statement today declaring that the lifting of the embargo on arms was no longer necessary to the success of the insurgents.

ANTHRACITE MINES LARGE PRODUCERS

The number of anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania in 1912 was 275, according to E. W. Parker, of the United States Geological Survey, and the average output of each was 289,456 short tons. The number of bituminous mines was 5,747, and their average production 78,184 tons. The average production from each anthracite mine is therefore nearly four times that from the bituminous mines.

Examinations for Life Certificates will not be given until March.

All persons wishing to take any examinations in December should file an application for the same with the county superintendent this week.

State the kind of certificate for which you expect to write.

C. LOUISE BOEHRINGER,
County Superintendent.

WILSON MAY HELP ON GEN. CARRANZA

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Following President Wilson's statement yesterday that the Mexican situation was still hopeful, word was received here that Dr. William Bayard Hale is continuing his conferences at Nogales with General Carranza and the members of his staff. The administration here is believed to be relying on the strength of the constitutional movement and the friendly support of foreign government to oust Huerta.
